IT WAS A BITTER PILL. Whitney Tower reports the pill (p., cov.) given by Dr. A. Harthill (p.) to Kentucky Derby winner Dancer's Image is Butazolidin (described). Discovery, result of urinalysis, disqualified P. Fuller's (p.) horse making Forward Pass official winner. Harthill says he treated Dancer's Image six days before race and effects normally last only 72 hours. Investigation will determine if horse received second dose within critical period. 4 p. 20 My 20-25

THE DANCER PLOT THICKENS. Whitney Tower recounts Forward Pass' (& Forrest, p.) win and Dancer's Image's setback from third place to eighth in 93rd Preakness (horses, p.) gives results of Churchill Downs stewards' hearing on Image's Kentucky Derby disqualification, reviews rumors surrounding Derby situation and notes enormity of Kentucky State Racing Commission's fact-finding task. Gwilym Brown reviews several outstanding events at track since Queen Anne ordered its construction in 1711. 17 Je 24-29

INQUIRY. Whitney Tower urges Kentucky racing officials to discharge responsibilities in view of evidence given by Trainer Lou Cavalaris and Robert Barnard (p.), on drugging of Dancer's Image before Kentucky Derby. Cavalaris stated to Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau, Inc. that he saw Dr. Harthill and Doug Davis mix Butazolidin into oats given to Dancer's Image. Barnard also said he saw Harthill and Davis mix drug into bran prepared for the Derby winner. 1 Jl 30-31

SUCKERED BY A RABBIT PUNCH. Billy Reed recounts Damascus' victory in the $109,400 Brooklyn Handicap in track record time of 1:59 1/5 for the 1 1/4 mile. The winner's purse of $71,110 makes Damascus the eighth Thoroughbred in history to earn more than $1,000,000. The race was Dr. Fager's second loss to Damascus in a race that the latter's stablemate, Hedevar, set a fast pace. Dr Fager in hot pursuit of Hedevar, p. 29 Jl 46-47

SURPRISE: PHIPPS LOSES A HOPEFUL. Whitney Tower reports Top Knight (p.) beats favorite Reviewer in the Hopeful Stakes, a race for maturing 2-year-olds with classic aspirations. The draw, which placed Top Knight on the outside, and the way the race was run (details), gave him the advantage. 2 S 42-43

ONE GOOD RUN BRINGS HOME ONE MIGHTY BIG POT. William Barry Furlong chronicles Strong Strong's upset victory over Wheatley-Phipps' King Emperor in Arlington-Washington Futurity for two-year-olds, reveals Owner Bill Resseguet, Jr. almost dropped Strong Strong out of Futurity to enter him in another race on same program. 16 S 96

MR. NERUD'S EVERYTHING HORSE. Whitney Tower recounts Dr. Fager's (p.) win over Advocator while running on grass for first time in United Nations Handicap. Dr. Fager is trained by John Nerud, has won 17 of 21 starts, including breaking Buckpasser's mile record at Chicago's Arlington Park 19 days before U.N. race in Atlantic City. 23 S 70-71

MR. RIGHT WINS FOR DR. FAGER. Whitney Tower reports 10-to-1 shot Mr. Right noses out Damascus in the 15th running of the Woodward Stakes (details) at Belmont Park. The race, in which Dr. Fager did not run, made him the new champion of the handicap division and probably Horse of the Year. Damascus and Mr. Right in action, p. 7 O 30-31

THE RACING DOCTOR MADE THE RIGHT PROGNOSIS. Whitney Tower recounts Vaguely Noble's (p.) easy victory in the 47th running of the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. Mrs. Robert Alan Franklyn with Agent Albert Yank and Trainer Etienne Pollet, p. 14 O 78-79
